YORK GOES DOWN TO DEFEAT

Omaha High Wins at Foot Ball by Thirty-Eight to Seven.

SENSATIONAL PLAYS NUMEROUS

Locals Ahead from the Start and at No Time Was There Any Question About the Result.

Omaha High school obtained a secure hold on the Nebraska state interscholastic foot ball championship yesterday afternoon by defeating York, 38 to 7. Now it is only necessary to defeat North Platte Thanksgiving day to secure undisputed claim to the championship.

The York team was speedy and every member played good foot ball, but the individual playing of Platts and Kelly, Omaha's two stars, turned the trick and the two backfield men gained enough ground by themselves to give Omaha the victory.

Platts and Kelly played good foot ball and it seemed that it was impossible to stop them when they once got a start. Platts made gain after gain for five, ten, fifteen, twenty-five and even thirty-five yards and often would continue his march to the goal line after two or three York men had climbed on his back in a vain endeavor to drag him down. It made little difference to Platts whether he was sent through the line or around the end. One way or the other a big gain was certain.

Platts also played a great defensive game, as did all the secondary defense men. After Cox or Osborne, the most consistent ground gainers, had broken away from Omaha's weak line, they were always tackled by Platts. He saved Omaha from several almost inevitable touchdowns by tackling one of the foot backs of the York squad after they had outrun the remainder of the Omaha team and secured a clear field.

Kelly at Quarterback. Kelly, the latest find of Coach Miller, ran the team at quarterback in an excellent fashion. He appeared to be able to know just what play to use and at what time to use it. His head work went a long way in giving Omaha the victory. He was just as good at running the ball as at generalship. He never once failed to make a respectable gain whenever he carried the ball himself.

After Klein was removed from the contest because of a strained ankle, Kelly shifted to a forward position several times and received long forward passes from Platts with as much accuracy as Klein showed. He pulled two down out of the air when it looked impossible for such a short man to make the leap and reach the ball.

Playing the safety position, Kelly only had one chance to show what he could do on the defensive. He made one of the clearest open field tackles ever seen in Omaha park when Cox broke around right end and evaded the rest of the team. He threw Cox clean and hard, although Cox probably outweighs him thirty-five pounds.

Omaha was weakened a bit by the absence of Moser at center. Moser's collarbone is still weak and Mills did not want to chance further injury, especially as the York team displayed a willingness to play rough. Beard, a second team player, held the center of the line much better than was expected.

Klein, right end, who has a propensity for appearing forward passes out of the air, was slightly hurt in the first quarter, but was able to return to the battle in the closing period.

Cox was York's partizan star. Speedy, shifty and heady, he made many runs around end, through broken fields and through the line. He made York's lone touchdown possible by charging the entire length of the field himself on successive plays. Osborne at quarter, also played a good game, but it availed him little because it was next to impossible to get by Omaha's second defense.

Omaha's Fast Start.

Omaha opened the game with a burst of speed and held York after Cox had worked the ball to the fifteen-yard line by himself. After Platts and Kelly had run the ball fifty yards back down the field, a doublecross forward pass, Kelly to Platts, netted another twenty-five yards, and Platts broke through the line for the first touchdown after which Gardner kicked goal. Score, 7 to 0.

York worked the ball up the field a second time, but Omaha held and the same combination of Platts and Kelly carried the ball back into York's territory, where a doublecross forward pass, Kelly to Platts, netted another twenty-five yards, and Platts broke through the line for the first touchdown after which Gardner kicked goal. Score, 13 to 0.

After the third kickoff York lost the ball and Platts made the most sensational play of the day. Fifty-five yards he carried the pigskin through a broken field with York tacklers on every side of him. He was down on the five-yard line by two York men who clambered upon his back, but didn't even hesitate and carried the York men the remaining five yards to the goal line. Gardner failed to kick goal and the score stood 19 to 0.

After the third quarter had been in play but a minute, Platts made a forward pass to Kelly and he scrambled forty yards with the ball before he was downed by an avalanche of York boys.

On the next play, Omaha fumbled the ball and Platts recovered it twenty yards behind the line of scrimmage. He instantly threw the ball forward a few yards just as two York men tackled him.

The referee ruled it to be a forward pass and the ball was brought back to the former position.

After York lost the ball on downs, Platts rushed for forty yards through the field and added twenty more to it when he went over for the fourth touchdown. Gardner again failed to kick goal. Score, 25 to 0.

Dusk Begins to Fall.

Immediately after the kickoff Platts and Kelly, with Harte and Barry, ran the ball fifty yards down the field and Platts tore through the line for the remaining twenty yards for a touchdown. Score, 31 to 0.

After working the ball back and forth in the center of the field Platts made a sixth touchdown. He had to run thirty yards to do it but he did it. Gardner kicked goal this time and the score was 38 to 0.

Dusk began to fall at this time and it became so dark that it was almost impossible to see the ball. Cox and Osborne taking advantage of the darkness worked several shift plays and succeeded in carrying the ball over for a touchdown merely because the Omaha boys didn't care particularly. May was sent over for the score. Final score, 38 to 7 in favor of Omaha. The lineup:
